

Feng Shui

or Decorating
Jews for Jesus Style

Feng Shui: (fūng shwā) n., [Chin.]
The art of arranging decor and furniture to promote harmony and balance.

Feng Shui experts say that proper placement of objects will bring positive energy or "chi."

Rule #1:
don't put a
chair on the ceiling or a window in
the floor.

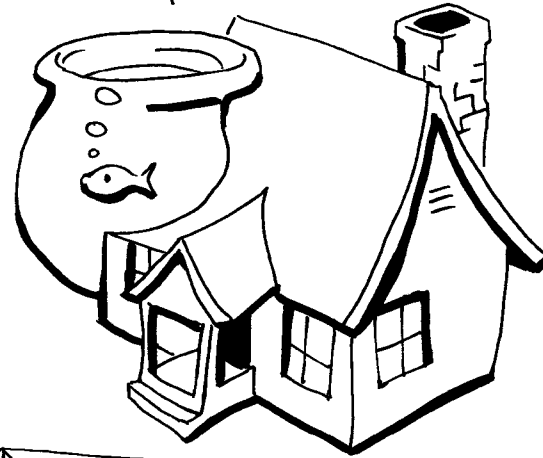

Dear, I don't think
two separate beds
is what they mean.

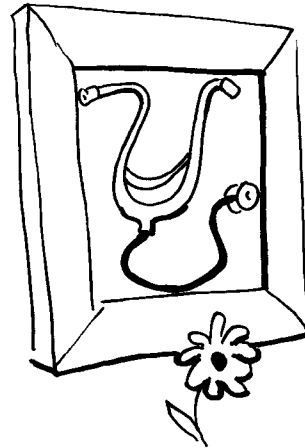

Rule #2:
place objects
in pairs in
the bedroom
to promote marital harmony.

Rule #3: The southeast
area of the home is for wealth and prosperity. It is good to have an aquarium here.

Rule #4:
The eastern portion
of the home
is for health.

Everyone wants peace,
harmony and balance in their life.
And while some arrange
their furniture to achieve it...

...there is a way to arrange not just your furniture but your entire life for perfect harmony.

It doesn't involve chi —
it involves chai!
(Nope, not the tea)
chai is Hebrew for life.

חי

God is the giver of chai!
He would like you to consider arranging your life to be aligned with him.

Instead of placing bright lights in the southern part of your house –
look to the Light himself.

Then Jesus spoke to them again,
saying, "I am the light of the world.
He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."
John 8:12

Instead of putting water in the northern part of your house – consider the Living Water of the universe.

"He who believes in Me
as the Scripture has said,
Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water."
John 7:38

Instead of re-arranging your furniture, screens and plants,
why not build on a whole
new foundation?

Therefore the Lord God said:
Look, I have laid a stone in Zion,
a tested stone, a precious cornerstone,
a sure foundation; the one who believes
will be unshakable.
Isaiah 28:16

Jesus (Y' shua) offers light for our way, living water to satisfy our thirst, and an unshakable forever!
