

Your

truth
is not

MY

Ttruth

That's what people say in many different ways!

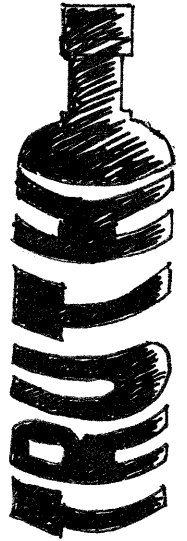

"TRUTH IS RELATIVE."

BUT

if there is such a thing as ABSOLUT truth,

But what they mostly mean is: I like my religion better than yours. I don't really care what you believe. Who's to say what's really true?

Lots of people act as though truth is just a matter of taste.

...because taste is definitely relative...

...which means lots and lots of choices.

then there is only one choice. You accept it... or you don't.

Absolute truth doesn't NEED anyone's say-so in order to exist. It's there whether we ACCEPT it or NOT.

The question is, where are we WITHOUT it?

If truth were really just a matter of taste, we'd all be slaves to our own pride and prejudices.

But absolute truth IS actually LIBERATING,
as a famous rabbi named Y'shua (Jesus) said:

"You shall know the truth,
and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32)

The truth is that Jesus
lived a perfect life, died
and rose from the dead
so that we could have forgiveness from our sinsincluding the sin of thinking that TRUTH is merely a matter of your own taste.

It's not a matter of your truth or my truth
because God's truth is for EVERYONE.

We hope you will ask
God about it...

But we'd be glad to discuss
it if you are interested.
